Screenshot:

The image displays two screenshots of a Microsoft PowerPoint presentation titled "RANKS OF PAKISTAN NAVY".

Slide 2 of 6: This slide features a blue background with the title "RANKS OF PAKISTAN NAVY" in large, bold, white letters. Below the title, there is a row of nine naval officer rank insignia. Underneath each insignia, the corresponding rank is listed: Midshipman, S/Lt, Lt, Lt/Cdr, Cdr, Captain, Cdre, R Adm., V Adm., and Adm.

Slide 3 of 6: This slide has a dark blue background. It contains a bulleted list of information about the ranks:

- MIDSHIPMAN
- An initially commissioned officer for the Pakistan Navy is given the title of Midshipman. This is the training phase for becoming a Naval Officer, based on the specialities that a recruit wants to master.
- SUB LIEUTENANT (S/LT)
- After about 2 years of training, Midshipmen are promoted to the Sub Lieutenant rank, where they monitor the crew as the first stage of becoming a Lieutenant.

The image displays three sequential screenshots of a Microsoft PowerPoint presentation, showing slides 4, 5, and 6 of a 6-slide deck. The presentation is titled "Naval Ranks" and is presented in a dark-themed design.

Slide 4 (Slide 4 of 6): The slide has a dark blue background with a subtle pattern. It lists the ranks of a Lieutenant (LT) and a Lieutenant Commander (LT/CDR).

- LIEUTENANT (LT)
 - LIEUTENANTS IN A NAVAL FLEET ENSURE THAT THE CREW ONBOARD IS CARRYING OUT THEIR RESPECTIVE DUTIES. IT IS A JOB THAT HOLDS A LOT OF RESPONSIBILITY AS LIEUTENANTS ARE ALSO OFTEN RESPONSIBLE FOR POSTING A CREWMEMBER ON GUARD TO WATCH FOR ENEMY ATTACKS.
- LIEUTENANT COMMANDER (LT/CDR)
 - The commanding officer of a small craft is called the Lieutenant Commander, with their own small crew. Officers holding this rank often choose to lead a particular department in the Navy.

Slide 5 (Slide 5 of 6): The slide has a light gray background. It lists the ranks of a Commander (CDR) and a Captain (CAPT).

- COMMANDER (CDR)
 - Overseeing a warship or a submarine, the Commander is usually the second in command after the Captain. Commanders may also work in naval bases onshore or choose to take up a position with the Ministry of Defence.
- CAPTAIN (CAPT)
 - Captains have command over larger ships or senior positions in shore-based establishments. The Captain is generally responsible for the wellbeing of the crew and the craft, including the maintenance of logbooks, settling disciplinary issues, delegating job roles, rationing food supplies, and more.

Slide 6 (Slide 6 of 6): The slide has a white background. It lists the ranks of a Commodore (CDRE) and a Rear Admiral (R-ADM).

- COMMODORE (CDRE)
 - As a Commodore, a naval officer can choose to command a fleet of vessels or take on bigger roles in an on-shore base. They also assist the Rear Admirals in their duties as required.
- REAR ADMIRAL (R-ADM)
 - This position gives officers the power to fly their own flags on their ships and command their own ships to protect the squadron and support it during battle.

For Inserting Row, Column, Header, Footer, Date and Time, Word Art, Page Number, Adding Cover page, Adding Table, Shape and Pictures In PowerPoint Slides (In Insert Tab)

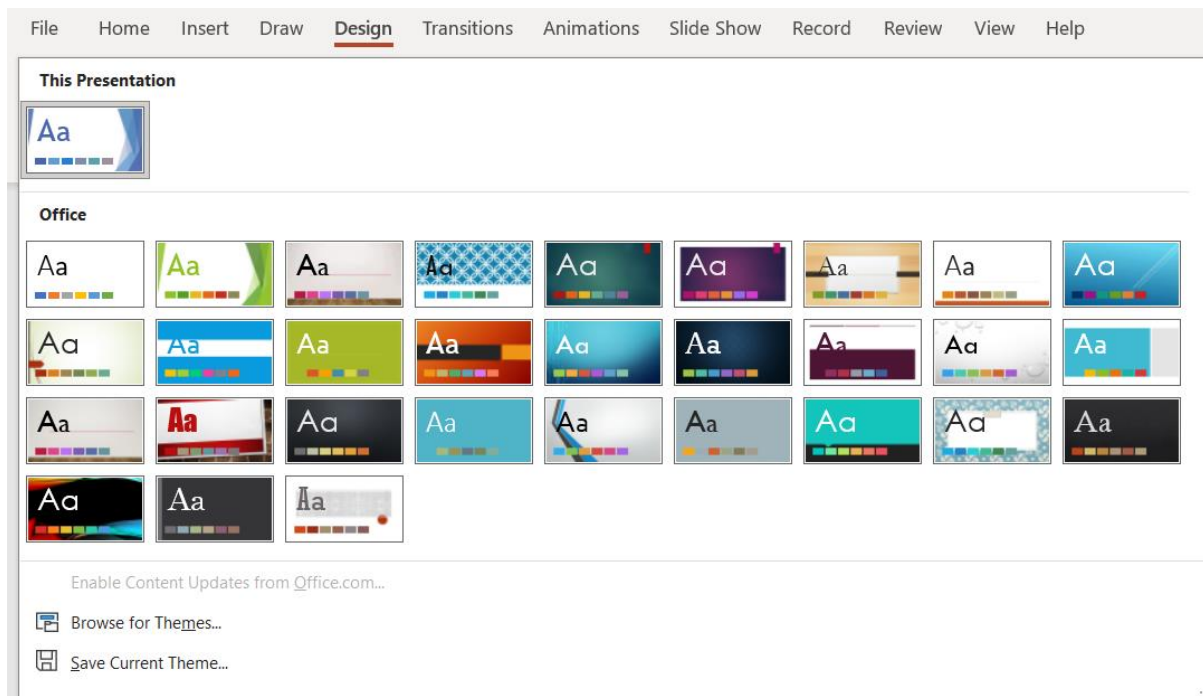

For Adding new Slide, Reuse Slide, Changing Font size, Font Style, Alignment of Text, Voice Typing in PowerPoint (In Home Tab)

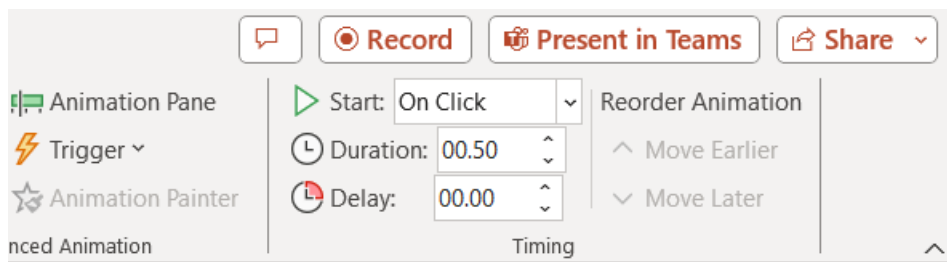

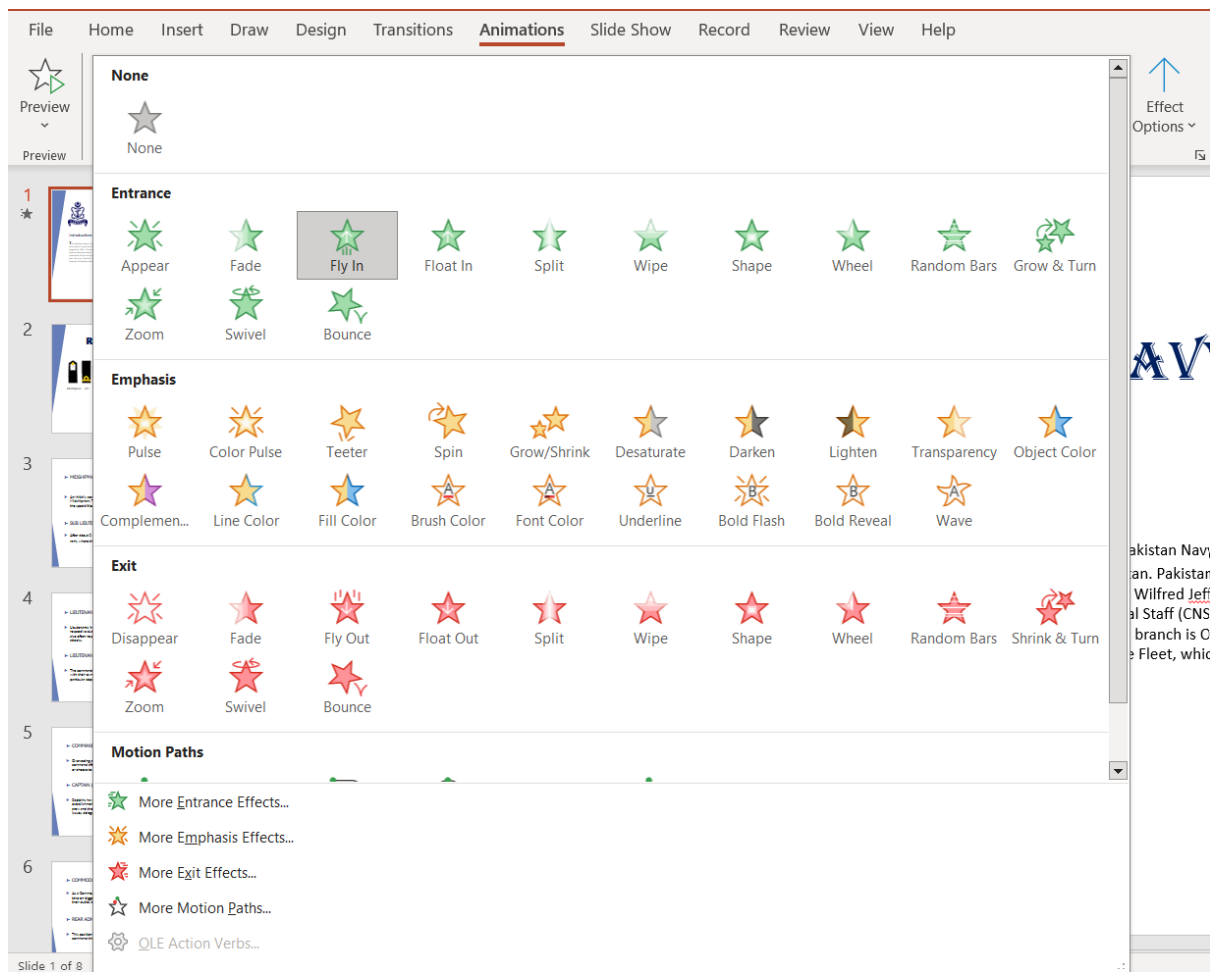

Task 2

I've already applied the Transitions, Designs and Animation to the above screenshot of slides. So here Below I am mentioning that how I did it that how I applied different Designs, Different Transitions, different Animations etc.

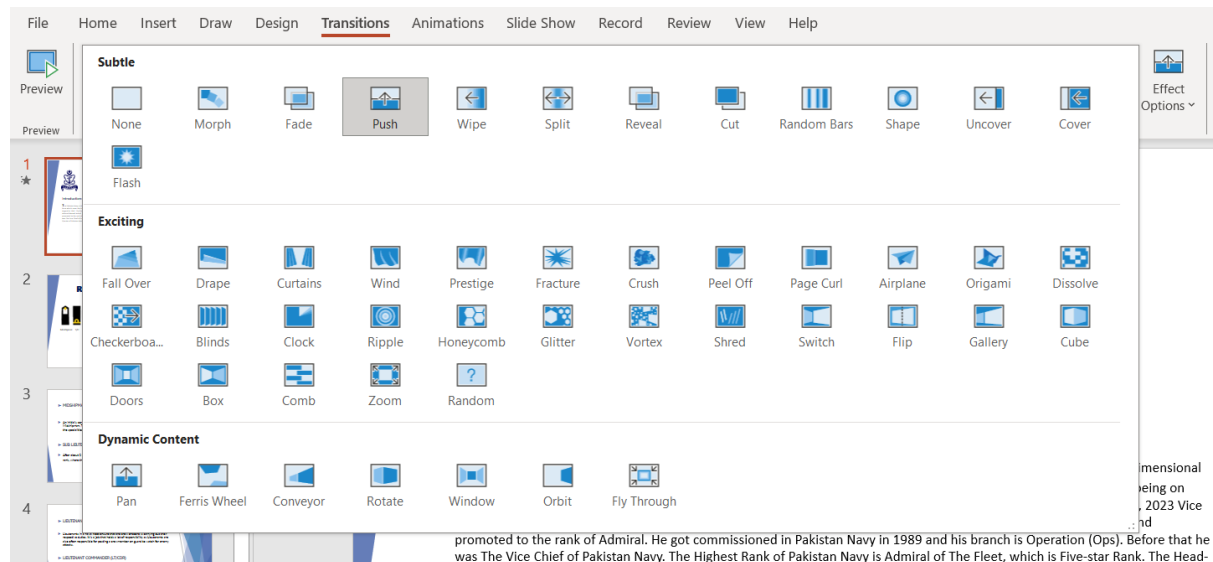

For Adding Different Design to different PowerPoint Slides (Design Tab)

For Adding Animation or editing the applied Animation to your Text in PowerPoint (Animation Tab)

For Adding Transition to your entire Slide (Transition Tab)

Conclusion:

In this Lab, I have learned about usage of Microsoft PowerPoint and how to make official slides and how can we add Transitions, designs, and Animations. The Lab session was healthy and interactive as well as informative.
